Phoenix Induction Named Supplier of the Year

PRO-TEC Coating Company, a provider of value-added steels to the quality-critical automotive industry, named Phoenix Induction its 2013 Supplier of the Year. Phoenix Induction, which has been a PRO-TEC partner since 2002, earned the award due to its reliability and outstanding support. The South Lyon, Mich.-based company has provided PRO-TEC with the necessary parts needed with a short delivery time while offering technical support at all hours. Phoenix Induction has also provided a well-trained and responsive support staff to meet PRO-TEC's needs. This marks the 13th year that PRO-TEC has given a Supplier of the Year award.
